From the Paris Gazette, dated October 3.

Naples, September 1.

SEveral French Officers are arriv'd to ſupply the Room of thoſe that are gone to Lombardy and Spain. Laſt Week great Rejoycings were made here, for the Victory obtain'd over the Imperialiſts near Caſſano by the Army of the 2 Crowns. The Artillery of the Caſtles was fir'd at Midnight when the Courier arriv'd with the News, and the next Day the Duke d' Eſcalona our Viceroy was preſent at the Singing of Te Deum in the Church of the Carmelites, accompanied by all the Miniſters. A Conteſt is riſen between the Magiſtrates and the Lawyers of this City, upon many of the latter's endeavouring to introduce a Cuſtom of waiting upon the Judges without their Gowns and with Swords on. The Magiſtrates oppoſe this new Practice, and there have been Papers written and publiſh'd on both Sides on this Subject.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Oct. 2.

Naples, September 2. A Declaration is publiſh'd, by which the Courts of Juſtice declare that all thoſe Neopolitans who bear Arms againſt King Philip V. their lawful Soveraign, are guilty of High Treaſon; and that their Lives, Eſtates, and Goods are forfeited, without Remiſſion, unleſs they quit the Enemy's Service within a certain Time preſcrib'd the in Declaration. The 15th of this Month the Ceremony will be perform'd of uncovering the Equeſtrian Statue of the King in the Square of Jeſus, the Noblemen that are to be of the Cavalcade being order'd to be ready againſt that Day; the Artillery of the Caſtles, and the ſmall Arms of the Garriſon, are to give Salvoes on that Occaſion, and great Rejoycings will be made throughout this City. Cardinal Giudici having viſited his Archbiſhoprick of Monreal, is preparing to return to Rome the beginning of October. They write from Palermo, that the Marquis de Bedmar Viceroy of Sicily, was on his Departure thence for Meſſina.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 6.

Landau, September 29. General Thungen has begun the Siege of Haguenau, with ſo great Vigour, that we doubt not he will ſoon be Maſter of the Place. 'Tis talk'd that after the taking of that Place ſome other Enterprize will be undertaken againſt the Enemy's Country; which is probable, becauſe we continue to ſend from hence, as they do alſo from Lauterbourg and Philipsbourg, frequent Convoys of Artillery and Ammunition to the Army under the Prince of Baden. Proviſions are very plentiful and cheap in his Camp.

Cologne, October 2. Great Preparations are made here, for the Ceremony of our Magiſtrates paying Homage to the Emperor's Miniſter repreſenting his Imperial Majeſty. Count Lottum paſs'd through this Place to Day, in his Return from the Baths of Embs to Wezel. The Elector Palatin arriv'd 2 Days ago from Duſſeldorp, at his Caſtle of Bensberg, which is a League from hence, to take the Diverſion of Hunting for ſome Days. A Gentleman ſent from the Prince of Baden is gone from hence to wait on his Electoral Highneſs.

From the Camp before Barcelona, September 9. O. S. Coming from Duty this day, I underſtood my Lord Peterborough was ſending for England. My Time is ſo ſhort that I cannot enter into Particulars, I can only tell you in general that we have had great Succeſs ſince our firſt Attack on Fort Montjouy, which was on Sunday laſt, having it now in our Hands; which Fort was of mighty Conſequence to the Enemy. We loſt a very great Man in this Action, the Prince of Heſſe, who was kill'd in the Attack. Laſt Night we open'd our Trenches, and have great Hopes that in a few days we ſhall be Maſters of Barcelona.

Falmouth, October 1. Yeſterday ſail'd the Tuſcan and George Galley, both for Leghorne; and the Anna Katherina a cruiſing. To Day ſail'd the Godolphin Packet-Boat, Captain Gibſon Commander with 2 Mails for Lisbon.

Plymouth, October 2. To Day ſail'd to the Eaſtward Her Majeſty's Ship the Severne and Scarborough, with 2 Dutch Men of War, and under their Convoy ſome homeward bound Ships for London and Holland.

Yarmouth, October 3. Yeſterday ſail'd out of theſe Roads 40 Sail of laden Colliers, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ships the Sheerneſs and Dolphin, and here remain 19 Sail of Light Colliers.

Harwich, October 4. Yeſterday the Merlin Sloop arriv'd here, and under her Convoy the Hull Fleet which paſs'd by for the River.

London, October 6.

Letters that came by the Neptune Galley from Barcelona, (with the Expreſs mention'd in in our laſt,) give theſe particulars of the taking of Fort Montjouy at Barcelona, viz. That one of the Beſiegers Bomb falling into a Magazine of Powder, blew it up and with it a Gate and other Parts of the Works of the ſaid Fort; whereby a large Breach being made, the Beſiegers took the Opportunity and enter'd it Sword in Hand. The taking of this Fort gave them Means to poſſeſs themſelves of all the Out-works of the Town; and determin'd the Earl of Peterborough to reſolve upon a general Aſſault upon the Place. To facilitate which Storm, tis agreed between his Lordſhip and Sir Cloudſly Shovel, that upon a Signal given when his Lordſhip cauſes his Troops on the Land-ſide to advance, there ſhall be landed from the Fleet, to attack the Town on the Side towards the Sea

1100 Marines.
2500 Engliſh Seamen.
600 Dutch Seamen.

4200 in all, beſides Gunners and Carpenters. And that while the Attack is making, the Place ſhall be bombarded and cannonaded. Sir Stafford Fairbon is appointed to command the Bombardment and Cannonading. When the Neptune Galley came away, viz. the 10th of September O. S. there were 48 Cannon already aſhore and plac'd on a Battery againſt the Town. We are told the Prince of Heſſe Darmſtad being wonnded by a Muſquet-ſhot in the Groyne, bled to Death.
